RUMOR THAT ROGGE HOTEL COLLAPSED TODAY

Farmers Round About Stricken City Bringing in Pro-

by Taking Advantage of the Need of the Flood Sufferers.

(By F. A. Woolson, staff correspondent.)

Zanesville, Ohio, March 29.—After driving to Hanover, thence by the new Zanesville road to Irville and across to the Zanesville Terrace, Mr. Guy Watkins, wire chief of the Newark Telephone Company and myself spent the night at the home of a grocer who lives on the edge of the city. We crossed over the Terrace this morning and about 8 o'clock established a station at the corner of Van Horn and Linden avenue. The water on this street is still about three feet deep and higher up, the streets are almost impassable owing to the washed debris and mud.

The residents in this, the southern portion of the city are of the opinion that the death list will range between 25 and 50, although this is based merely on conjecture owing to the fact that it is almost impossible to communicate with the center of the city and Putnam where it is feared the death toll will be the heaviest.

In talking with Mr. J. V. Rhodes, manager of the telephone company, he said that the Sturdevant department store, the Elk's Club and the Loeb Clothing store all in Main street had collapsed.

There is but one bridge left standing, that being at Fifth street. The only means of reaching the stricken section of the city, is by boats to this bridge, cross the bridge, and thence by boat again. The bridges at Third, Sixth and Monroe streets are gone as well as the B. & O. railroad bridge. It is rumored that a portion of the "Y" bridge also has been destroyed.

An attempt will be made this morning by the manager of the telephone company, J. V. Rhodes and Guy Watkins, to trace wires into the center of the city today and thus establish communication which has been cut off since Wednesday morning.

F. E. Valentine, chief clerk of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, said this morning that the freight house, the passenger station and a portion of the round house had collapsed and been washed away. An engine and coach were left on the rails but are submerged by the water.

There is still ten feet of water in the streets, but the waters have receded ten feet since Friday morning.

Temporary police headquarters have been established in the southern portion of the city at the residence of L. K. Brown, corner of Adair and Myrtle avenues. All the able bodied men in this part of the town have been sworn in as police deputies and in lieu of the regulation badges, use strips of white muslin on which is written in pencil the word "Police." Thus it was that their authority was established. These men work in parties of two or three and aid a company of militia to preserve order and prevent looting. Strict martial law has been established and no citizen is permitted on the street after 8 o'clock. The police are all equipped with either a lantern, or an electric flash light, as the electric lighting system will not be restored for several days. There is no gas, and no water supply.

On Friday, provisions were brought to the city by the farmers from the nearby villages, but the citizens are protesting against the exorbitant prices asked, as they have boosted the price of eggs to 30 cents and other commodities accordingly.

It was reported in South Zanesville that a train load of provisions arrived on the Zanesville & Western late Friday afternoon.

The Good Samaritan Hospital is filled with refugees as are the school houses and churches. The Zanesville Times-Recorder has been issuing what they call "Flood Bulletins," half-sheet posters, set up by hand and printed on a job press. These contain reports on the local conditions.

The water covered houses in points never touched by a flood before. It is conservatively estimated that the flood reached a stage 18 feet higher than ever before.

ROGGE HOTEL HAS NOT COLLAPSED.

Zanesville, Ohio, March 29.—(By way of Pittsburgh by telephone.)—Four bodies had been recovered up to six o'clock this morning. The waters of the Muskingum river have reached to Second street. The rumor that the Rogge hotel collapsed is untrue. The Schultz theater building is in danger of falling.

PROVISION TRAIN OVER PENNSYLVANIA.

Major O'Brien, of Columbus, one of Governor Cox's right hand men and two other state officials arrived in this city about midnight Friday. They left Columbus a day or so ago, going by auto down the National Pike as far as possible and discovered that the people of Zanesville were suffering from the lack of food. No report had been sent at that time from the Terrace, the resident part of Zanesville, lying on the hill north of the river and as all provisions were cut off, Major O'Brien came to Newark in an effort to get provisions to the people of that section. He left this city at six o'clock this morning on the Pennsylvania to Frazeysburg.

HEAVILY LOADED BLAIR TRUCK

MAKES SUCCESSFUL TRIP TO ZANESVILLE.

The Blair auto truck carrying eight Central Union linemen, many coils of wire and other apparatus for the repair of telephone lines left Newark Friday at 3:30 p. m. in charge of Frederick Wright Jr. A telephone message from Zanesville announces that the truck reached the Muskingum river safely at 2 a. m., having been delayed on the way by the repair of telephone lines.

The truck encountered frightful roads from Newark to Zanesville via the National pike but the fact that it successfully made the trip carrying an immense load speaks volumes for this Newark-made product. General Manager Frank M. Blair was pleased to receive a report Saturday saying the truck had reached its destination but when Mr. Blair sent the truck on the trip he was confident that it would get over the road if any vehicle could make it.

LATEST NEWS FROM RELATIVES OF NEWARK PEOPLE IN FLOOD DISTRICTS.

O. C. Jones received a letter Monday saying that his wife and sister would be in Cincinnati Wednesday, and up to date has been unable to get any word from them. He was also much worried as to his daughter, Mrs. Malcomb Baker, who is in Dayton, and left Newark this morning to attempt to get to Dayton and locate her.

Mr. M. Sachs of the Cornel Clothing Company, received a tele-

LOOTER WAS KILLED IN THE ACT TODAY BY COLUMBUS GUARD

Search for Bodies Saturday Morning Resulted in Find ing of Fifty-Six Among Debris—Frantic Relatives Allowed to Look for Loved Ones.

Columbus, March 29.—(Noon.)—The work of the searching parties in the flooded Scioto district increased the list of bodies recovered to 56. The water was subsiding rapidly and the work of the rescuers is being made easier. Scores of transfer vans are transversing the inundated section of the district today carrying relief to hundreds marooned in the upper stories of the houses. Many of those marooned refused to leave their homes declaring that the worst was over and that they wished to stay with their property. The military authorities lifted the iron clad rules a trifle this morning and allowed hundreds to return to their homes in the flooded district from which the water has receded as they wish to clean up their property.

Parties of searchers are exploring in the great drifts of debris as fast as the water goes down for bodies of the flood victims. Hundreds of survivors are searching frantically for missing relatives.

A looter was shot and killed early today on the west side. The shot which killed him is said to have been fired by a private of the Marysville, O., guard. The body of the looter dropped into the water and it was impossible to rescue it. Many shots have been fired at looters on the east side by members of the guard.

NEWARK SENDS PROVISIONS AND BOATS TO ZANESVILLE AMONG FIRST TO GIVE AID

NEWARK ELKS PROMPT IN GIVING RELIEF FRIDAY

Special Train With Supplies and Soldiers
Leaves B. & O. Station at 7:30
a. m. Saturday

Five Hundred Dollars Appropriated From Advocate
Relief Fund—Motor and Row Boats Sent to Aid Sufferers—Train Under Weybrecht's Command.

The Newark Elks are deserving of much credit for leading in the work of affording relief to Zanesville. The trustees last night increased the Elk's subscription from $50 to $150 and individually the Elks who happened to be in the club room yesterday at one time gave $90 personally.

George E. Bader, Charles Starkweather, Homer Smith, L. H. Bader, John D. Bader and Clyde Crilly volunteered to go to Zanesville to operate the motor and row boats Saturday and assist in relief work. When arrangements were made for sending a car of provisions, Warren Suter, George Bader and E. W. Murphy in C. T. Bricker's and Mr. Bader's autos went about town and collected from Elks a large quantity of clothing. Mayor F. M. Swartz did the same thing in West Newark and all of these supplies were put in the Newark car for Zanesville. Mr. Kuster's daughter telephoned to Elks all over town telling them the committee would call for supplies. The work was done quickly and efficiently and the Elks are entitled to a lot of credit for their splendid work.

It was the Elks who suggested the use of a part of the Newark general relief fund for helping Zanesville.

Fifteen cars loaded with provisions, clothing and supplies including two cars of motor and rowboats for relief of the flood sufferers at Zanesville, left Newark at 7:30 a. m. Saturday on the B. & O. for Dillon's Falls, four miles west of Zanesville.

In the train was a car load of groceries, meats, milk, medicine and clothing sent from Newark. The two car loads of boats came from Buckeye Lake.

The train was made up in Columbus and under General Weybrecht of Columbus and carried a car load of Columbus militia men.

One hundred and fifty feet of track had been washed away but the repair work was finished at 5 a. m. so as to permit the special train to pass. From Dillon's Falls or Dillon Tower the supplies must be carried in wagons, autos or horseback to the stricken city.

A Baltimore & Ohio freight car loaded with provisions for the Zanesville flood sufferers and containing motor boats and row boats from Buckeye Lake to be used in the rescue of people who are marooned by the high waters, left Newark early Saturday morning. James F. Irwin, a short distance away, had been forced out of her home by 15 feet of water, but is safe.

The Fair Oaks operator reported that Zanesville is under martial law and that it was necessary for him to obtain a permit to go to Putnam. He said that men were on the top of the court house using wig wag signals to communicate with parts of the city that could not be otherwise reached.

HUNDRED DEAD AT HAMILTON

Hamilton, O., March 29.—(11 a. m.)—Less than a hundred is the estimate today of the dead here from the flood. As the water recedes the evidence of the damage done to property is appalling but the death toll it is believed will not exceed 100.

Piled high on the east side of the court house are numbers of caskets whose bodies are being gathered as rapidly as possible. The military is on guard in the city.

RAINFALL RECORD FOR MARCH BROKEN

All rainfall records for March were broken in the forty-eight hours between 10:30 a. m. Sunday and 10:30 a. m. Tuesday when 5.37 inches of rain came down, according to the records in the Cleveland office of the United States weather bureau.

Afternoon attended by the three committee, Fred C. Evans, A. H. Rickert and C. H. Spencer. The following named men were also present: H. L. Montgomery, Frank L. Beegs, Robert W. Smith, George Hermann, James F. Irwin, E. Gary Norris, Walter C. Metz, W. C. Wells, Wayne Collier and Frank S. Neigh.

These men were unanimous in deciding to send provisions to Zanesville but before definite action was taken, many of the local subscribers to the local relief fund were called by phone as the fund on hand was raised for the purpose of local relief and the committee did not want to assume authority to use it elsewhere. When the call for local relief was made the situation was thought to be more acute than it developed and the committee found it unnecessary to use all the fund that had been subscribed.

President Evans appointed committees to secure groceries, meat, milk, bread and medicine and instructions were given to have the supplies delivered to the freight station Friday evening. The Advocate's third edition issued at 6:30 p. m. gave a report of this meeting and requested people to send clothing and provisions to the B. & O. station. As a result of this appeal a great many people took supplies and clothing to the car and the response was very generous.

W. C. Wells, H. P. Scott and A. H. Rickert accompanied the train Saturday morning to assist in the distribution of the provisions and clothing.

Geo. Bader with a number of expert boatmen accompanied the train to manage the motor and row boats.

Mr. F. L. Beegs included in the two car loads of boats came from Buckeye Lake.

MOTORMAN GIVES EXPERIENCE OF MANY HOURS TERRIFIC STRAIN SUFFERED BY HIM AND COMPANIONS

Perry Richards of 47 North Pine, at 3 p. m. at West Zanesville and a motorman on the Ohio Electric, were driven through the water at State street in order to get to our cars. We ran our cars toward Newark for one-half mile and stayed at this point until 6 p. m. and then ran for another one-half mile. At 10:30 p. m. the water was not over 1000 feet from us. We had no power, so in case the water reached us we were stuck. We made exploring trips every five hours and were lucky in being close to a farm house.

On Tuesday, March 25, the water was at 1:30 p. m. We made our relief (Continued on Page 4, Oct. 4.)

Hints on Hair Health

If you use our treatment, we will either stop your hair from falling or pay for the treatment ourselves.

Ringworm is a contagious disease caused by a microorganism which is not removed by ordinary soaps. This minute often comes from a comb or brush belonging to someone else.

If you are troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair, or baldness, we believe that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do more than anything else to remove the dandruff, destroy the germs, make the scalp healthy and stop falling hair, and, if there is any life left in the roots, also promote growth of new hair.

We believe that probably 85 per cent of cases of baldness could be cured if people would only use Rexall "93" Hair Tonic for a reasonable time, as directed.

We don't want you to take our word for this. We want you to test the merits of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk. If you use it and it does not give satisfaction, just come back to us and tell us, and we will immediately hand back to you the money you paid for it. You receive nothing, save nothing, and your mere word will be taken for it.

We are dependent upon your confidence and patronage, and we would not make these claims, or make this offer if we did not believe that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is the very best hair preparation you can use. Two sizes of bottles, 50c and $1.00.

You can buy Rexall "93" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store:

Held For Grafting.

New York, March 29.—James E. Hussey and James F. Thompson, police inspectors, and Captain John J. Murtha, formerly acting inspector, were indicted on charges of bribery as a result of the district attorney's crusade against graft in the police department. Two patrolmen and a civilian alleged to be a graft collector also were indicted. Nineteen indictments were handed down and bench warrants issued for the six men involved.

PAY PENALTY FOR MURDER

Floyd Allen and His Son Claude Are Executed in Virginia.

Richmond, Va., March 29.—Floyd Allen, leader of the outlaw band in Carroll county, was executed in the state penitentiary. The aged prisoner, terribly unshaven after the excitement incident to the delay of six hours in carrying out the sentence, went to the chair bravely. The prison guards next brought Claude Swanson Allen, son of Floyd, into the death chamber. He was executed without a hitch.

HEAVY SWELL IN OHIO RIVER

Sections of Cincinnati and Environs Under Water.

RISE MAY SMASH RECORDS

Weather Forecasters Predict the Seventy-Foot Mark Will Be Reached, If Not Surpassed—Conditions Becoming Serious On the Kentucky Side. Covington and Newport Being Partly Submerged.

Reservoir Out of Danger.

Cincinnati, O., March 29.—This city is facing the worst flood in its history. The Ohio river continues to rise, increased in volume by the flood waters from tributary streams east and north of here. The indications are that before many hours have passed the gauge will reach 70 feet, almost the mark of 1884, the record year.

Streetcar lines soon will have to be abandoned and it is feared that before many hours the lines into Cincinnati will have to cease operations. This also is true of Covington lines. Electric light and gas plants also are threatened with early stoppage.

Weather forecasters here expressed conviction that by night the river would reach 68 feet and would go to the 70-foot mark early next week, probably Monday. The weather bureau also declared there would be a further rise of five to 10 feet at all points above here within the next two or three days.

At Cincinnati the conditions have not yet reached an acute stage, but it is feared that soon they will. All the lowland to the west and east of the city has been submerged and also along the water front of the business section the lower floors of the commercial houses are gradually disappearing under the yellow waves of the river. No loss of life has occurred here, due to the precautions of the authorities.

Across the river along the Kentucky shore conditions are rapidly becoming worse. At Covington more than 500 houses are reported submerged and their occupants are being given shelter and protection in the public buildings that have been thrown open to them.

Plans are being formulated to care for flood sufferers, and a meeting was held at Covington at which the problem was given consideration and arrangements made to raise a sufficient fund for the purpose. At the same time arrangements also were made for policing the flood district and preventing looting.

Newport, which with Covington is opposite Cincinnati, forms the larger of the suburban sections, is in almost as bad a case as its neighboring city. The flood water is rising in all parts of the town and in many sections has filled the cellars of houses for the second time within a year.

Many Towns Flooded.

Gallipolis, O., March 29.—The most disastrous flood since 1854 is sweeping down the Ohio river valley. Gallipolis is the only dry town within a distance of 75 miles either way. Pomeroy, Middleport, Point Pleasant, Syracuse, Racine, Clifton and Mason City are flooded. Cold weather has added to the suffering of victims of the high waters.

Deserted Baby Found.

Columbus, O., March 29.—Walter Taylor, 94 North Princeton avenue, reads a card found upon a baby less than two years old, found alone in a house on the stricken West Side. The child wore a bearskin coat and was clean and neat as if its parents had recently cared for it. The baby is being kept by the nurses at a hospital. Its parents are missing.

Thirty-two Dead.

Cincinnati, O., March 29.—Another food-stricken village was heard from when Coronor Foersteyer was notified that 32 lives had been lost at Venice, Butler county. The dead were members of five families. One mother was saved. Three bodies have been recovered. The postoffice of the Venice settlement is at Rose.

Parkersburg Under Water.

Parkersburg, W. Va., March 29.—More than half the business district of Parkersburg and part of the residence section are under water and the Ohio river is still rising. The gas, electric and water plants went out of commission and streetcars stopped operating. The property damage in this section already is tremendous.

Aid Dayton and Chillicothe.

Washington C. H., O., March 29.—Residents of this city sent six carloads of provisions and clothing to the flood sufferers and a quantity of the needful to Chillicothe. Though the flood damage in Fayette county was very large, there were no fatalities.

WHOLE COUNTRY RESPONDS TO APPEAL

Governor Cox Will Have Millions For Flood Sufferers.

Columbus, O., March 29.—Governor Cox has received to date relief funds in excess of $300,000. From the stack of telegraphic tenders on his desk he estimated the total to come would exceed $1,000,000. Donations varied from $58,500 sent by the Cleveland chamber of commerce to $1, mailed from the penitentiary by Isaiah Koon, a convict, who wrote: "I am a prisoner and have children that might need help."

In addition the New York World advised the governor it was sending $10,000, of which $10,000 was received by the City National bank of this city. Governor Osborne wired the Michigan legislature had appropriated $25,000. Governor Dunne of Illinois wired that a bill appropriating $100,000 had been introduced.

Colonel M. L. Wilson, treasurer of the state relief committee with Isaac D. Pugh of County Auditor Sayre's office, as special accountant, lost no time in drawing eight drafts on donors who wired they could be drawn upon. Among the donors are: Aiton B. Parker, $5,000; city of Oakland, Cal., $5,000; Mayor Arnold of Denver, $2,050; Mayor Snow, Fresno, Cal., $1,000; Commercial Club, Salt Lake City, $2,000; W. U. Telegraph company, $1,500; Spokane Chamber of Commerce, $1,000; Commercial Club, Fargo, N. D., $500.

The first United States government relief train reached Columbus with 200,000 rations, tents for 20,000 people, 25,000 blankets, 400 stoves, 100 ranges, 8,000 cots and 100 hospital tents. To care for anticipated need at Cincinnati 3,000 blankets and 3,000 bed sacks were sent there. A train-load of supplies sent by the United States army is en route to Ohio with engineer officers, who were on duty in the Mississippi valley last year and so are experienced in flood work. These have been assigned to Fort Wayne, Cincinnati, Youngstown and Hamilton. A medical officer, with 60 hospital corps men, has been ordered to the Columbus barracks.

McIntyre to Join Indians.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 29.—Matt McIntyre, former slugger with the Tigers and Sox, and last year with San Francisco, will become an Indian. He bought his own release and wants a job here. McIntyre went to Detroit after a conference with Kelly. He will report later this week.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Cure For Quinsy.
It is stated that the juice of the fresh pineapple has been successfully used in quinsy. When the abscess has formed and the overlying tissues have become damaged the juice readily digests them, opens the abscess without pain, obviates the use of a surgeon's knife and shortens by several hours or days the period of misery often endured by the timid person who is afraid of a surgical operation.

In cases where a boil has come to a head and the patient is afraid of the knife the application of fresh pineapple pulp will cause the tissues to dissolve and give relief in a short time.

Mrs. Charles Andrews of Zanesville, who is visiting Mrs. E. A. Ford of Bolin avenue, is nearly frantic concerning the fate of her husband and five children who live at the corner of Moxahala and Lincoln avenues in that city. She has heard nothing from them.

GOVERNMENT SPECIAL TRAIN TO DAYTON ABANDONED FOR AUTOMOBILES

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 29.—After a conference this morning between Secretary of War Garrison and Major General Wood it was decided to abandon the special train to Dayton and proceed by auto the rest of the way. It was also decided that Major General Wood should stay here and assist Mayor Hunt and the Red Cross Society to clear up the situation here. Accompanying Secretary Garrison will be Major General Rhodes and General McCoy. Major Connor of the army corps and Captain Whaley of the medical corps will go to Hamilton to take charge of the situation in that city.

HARRY DAVIS' DAUGHTER SAFE.

Mrs. Harrington Davis of Granville street, rejoiced in the receipt of a message from Springfield Saturday morning announcing the safety of her little daughter, Linda, and her mother, Mrs. Thomas, at Dayton.

Mr. Davis left for Dayton Thursday by automobile and his brother Will W. Davis got aboard a relief train at Columbus bound for Dayton in an effort to locate the family. The Springfield message brings word that Mrs. Thomas and the little girl with others of the family were found safe in the second story of the home on Ludow street in the heart of the city of Dayton. Water had been nine feet deep at that point and the family had for four days lived in the second floor keeping warm by burning driftwood in a grate. They had time to take food and water to the second floor so suffered no great hardship during the time they were marooned by the flood.

Mr. Harry Davis and his cousin took the family to Mrs. Thomas' home in Oakwood a high suburb out of the flooded district and will bring his daughter home as soon as possible.

CONDITIONS ALONG OHIO RIVER.

Washington, March 29.—Flood Bulletin: The stage of the Ohio river at Pittsburgh was 24.6 feet this morning a fall of 5.6 feet since Friday morning. Reports from the stretch between Pittsburgh and Parkersburg are missing. At Cincinnati the morning stage was 66 feet, which is 16 feet above the flood stage and a further rise of 2 feet is expected.

Indications point to a somewhat lesser height than was predicted, it will be 68 feet rather than 70 feet the river reached 17.1 feet, which is 13 feet above the flood stage. A further rise is also expected here. Reports from Evansville, Ind., are missing. At Cairo the river reached 18.1 feet. The river at this point will rise slowly for the next few days. The flood situation on the lower Mississippi river is reported to be unchanged.

COMPANY G TO COLUMBUS

THOUGHT SURGERY HIS LAST CHANCE

Dread fear of an operation no longer in this man's mind since trouble has vanished.

PENNSYLVANIA MAN'S STATEMENT

Was told nothing but an operation would benefit him—but United Doctors think it different.

The following story of how a Freidenau, Penn., man avoided an unnecessary operation again brings proof to the minds of all that the United Doctors' new non-surgical methods of medicine are daily saving many people from useless cutting with the knife.

Operations in fact are becoming less popular every day for the sick are beginning to understand that operations are often performed needlessly when there happens to be another way of curing their trouble by medicines.

Freidenau, Penn., Mar. 22, 1912.—To the Public—About a year ago I was attacked very severely by an ailment that the doctors told me was appendicitis.

I doctor'd right along and had about given up all hope of my recovery. It was told that the only thing the doctors could do for me would be to operate for appendicitis and that this was the only thing that would save my life.

I refused to let them operate for something kept telling me that they were mistaken in the diagnosis of my case.

Finally without much hope of relief I applied to the United Doctors at their Johnstown Institute for treatment. I described my case to these specialists and started treatment with them only one month ago.

I then became hopeless for a while but was not certain of relief, and had just about decided to give up their treatment and go to the hospital and submit to the dreaded operation, when the great change in my condition began to show itself.

The terrible pain in my stomach and bowels left me and a large amount of constipation and the like that had entered in my system.

This is the result of only one month's treatment with the United Doctors and no one knows how thankful I am to them. I feel like a new man and able to do active work on my farm again.

I am in this treatment in justice to the United Doctors and also to the other sufferers like I have been to know just where to go to get the safest and best treatment and quick relief. Signed.

DEVASTATION IS REVEALED IN COLUMBUS

HUNDREDS OF HOUSES HAVE COLLAPSED IN CLOSELY SETTLED DISTRICTS

Conditions on West Side Beginning To Assume Better Shape To Relieve Distress

Columbus, March 29.—Hundreds of houses have collapsed.

Heaving piles of debris are washed against the doors and windows of the houses remaining in what was formerly one of the closely settled districts of the city.

Many bodies, it is believed, will be found beneath the mass of flotation when the waters go down and the ground is actually covered.

Remains are located around oil lamps, trying to warm their hands over the meager flames these afford, for only an occasional home is found with a stove to provide heat.

Huge barns have been carried from original sites and deposited in front door yards more than half a mile away. Articles of furniture are stacked on roofs, in the limbs of trees and on telephone poles, while every home in that district has a covering from one to two feet of slime and small debris on its main floors.

This presents an extreme of conditions on the West Side.

The waters had fallen back from the district east of Sandusky street, and scores of sightseers and relief workers were able to make their way across timber piles and crushed houses to the edge of the flooded district. West Broad street was passable as far as Hawkes avenue; two blocks beyond Mt. Carmel Hospital, but a general depression of the territory beyond that street caused the water to run at a terrific rate.

Along Broad street conditions rapidly are beginning to assume a better appearance. A number of storekeepers reached their places of business and commenced the work of sweeping out the mud and water. Several of these stated they would be able to give valuable assistance in the way of clothing and food within the next few hours.

Along May street the devastation is complete. Windows were broken by the rushing waters, and the houses ruined of their contents. Foundations were unable to stand the strain and three houses near the corner of State and May streets are thrown together in a confused pile, roof to roof, with several feet of debris piled above them.

At the corner of May and West Broad streets, the entire rear wall of a building has been torn away, leaving a cross-section view of the building with its contents covered with a heavy layer of clay and mud.

Hundreds of families are marooned in their homes, but satisfied to remain where they are. Nearly all were busily engaged in cleaning their homes and had but one fear—that of not getting enough to eat. Scores of provision boats made a tour of the district, however, and unless something unforeseen happens little further trouble should be experienced.

The district near the washout of the Panhandle bridge on Sullivant avenue now contains less than a dozen houses, where fully 200 stood last Monday. The few survivors of the flood's ravages there told of a night of terror, during which the cries of the drowning were harshly blent with the noise of falling buildings.

The current in the vicinity of the Sullivant avenue washout was terrible yesterday and where it united with the Avondale current formed a stream that few boats could pass. Two men tried to ford the three feet of swift running water but were thrown beneath the water and escaped only after a severe struggle.

he applied to the United Doctors at their Johnstown Institute for treatment. I described my case to these specialists and started treatment with them only one month ago.

Mr. Brown, the farmer where we board, started to Zanesville in a two horse wagon for supplies. Martin Luther went along to see the sights. He returned at 7 p. m. with a few supplies as the storekeepers would only sell a small supply. A billboard about 100 feet from our car just went down the river. We were sorry to see it go as we used it for a mark to tell how fast the water is raising.

"Smith and Caben are all in and have gone to sleep. They had one experience which they will remember for some time to come.

"5:30 p. m. and Martin and Mr. Brown are not back. We carried several tubs of coal in and filled the water tank with spring water. If it keeps raining all night the cars will be surrounded with water. It is getting dark and we have no power or no lights, so it will be a case of love in the dark for us. The water is on the B. & O. tracks at this point and our coal supply will be cut off until the water goes down. We are back from supper and find the water raising so fast that we must move our cars. We borrowed three crowbars and moved the cars 200 feet west. We were two hours doing this. We did not sleep much as we thought best to watch the water. The soft coal we are using does

RECEDING TIDE GIVES UP BOBIES

No Definite Line Yet on the Columbus Dead.

LATEST ESTIMATE IS 200

Property Damage Enormous On the West Side, a Great Portion of Which Was Swept Almost as If by a Tidal Wave—Sightseers and the Curious Barred From the Flood Zones—Situation Elsewhere.

Columbus, O., March 29.—Authorities here are as yet unable to give a definite line on the number of dead as a result of the flood that ravaged the west side of this city.

Rigid investigation indicates that most of the rumors of large loss of life will be proven untrue, but the death list will be appalling. A great portion of the West Side was swept almost as if by a tidal wave and when the last water has drained away into the river channel it is possible that the number of dead will exceed 150. It may even go above 200.

Receding waters yield many bodies and many of these are identified. Relief agencies are receiving thousands of reports of refugees who are safe and inquiries for hundreds of persons who are missing.

Reports of those saved, which are coming in by the hundreds, give reason to believe that a substantial number of those reported as being carried off when their houses gave way before the swollen torrent of water did not drown, as so many eyewitnesses asserted, but were rescued.

It is evident that where so much confusion exists concerning the saved, dead and missing, classified and alphabetical arranged lists would prove the only salvation for those seeking information.

"A barb wire fence on Mound street, between Mt. Calvary and Green Lawn cemeteries, is holding back 100 tons of debris and fully 100 bodies," says Police Officer Van Giesen, who has been investigating conditions in that vicinity for two days. The officer declares he has interviewed scores of beamen who have visited the two cemeteries, and that these have substantially corroborated the earlier reports of a great loss of life.

The property damage on the West Side is terrible, although the shells of most of the houses are standing. Hundreds of these houses can be made habitable very soon. The water on the West Side is now so low that men without boats made their way from the Hilltop and back.

Stringent remedies were taken to keep away from the West Side the sightseers and curious. The military authorities were largely in charge. The situation bore some of the characteristics of martial law, although no formal order has been issued declaring such law in force.

Circleville sent a carload of relief supplies here over the Scioto Valley Traction line. The car contained 3,700 loaves of bread, 300 pounds of boiled ham, two cases of hardboiled eggs and other foodstuffs, besides a large quantity of clothing.

RESCUES HIS FAMILY

Engineer's Wild Ride in Locomotive From Toledo to Columbus.

Columbus, O., March 29.—"Track out at Columbus because of floods," was the message that Albert E. Dutoit of this city, read when his train was stopped at Walbridge, near Toledo. His heart gave a bound, for he knew that his family must be threatened. He detached his engine from the train and started on his race with death. Like mad he shot his engine across the space between Toledo and Columbus with a wide-open throttle.

Reaching this city he experienced great difficulty in reaching the West Side, where his family resided. Finally he chartered a motorboat and in a few hours he had his eight-months-old baby in one arm and the other around the waist of his wife, and smiling all about him were the three other members of his family.

WOULD RESTORE BRIDGES

Buckeye Solon Drafts and Introduces an Emergency Bill.

Columbus, O., March 29.—Representative Williams of Lorain county introduced an emergency bill to enable the counties to rebuild the hundreds of bridges in Ohio that have been destroyed by the floods. It provides that county commissioners may issue bonds not exceeding $100,000 for the rebuilding of a bridge destroyed by casualty, without submitting the matter to a vote, and that the levy for the payment of such bonds shall be above the limit of the Smith 1 per cent tax law. The bill carries an emergency clause so that it may take effect at once.

LOSS MAY REACH FIFTY MILLIONS

Business Section of Dayton Practically Ruined.

CITIZENS ESTIMATE DEAD

Number of Lives Lost Placed at Two Hundred, Based Upon Personal Canvass of the Stricken Zone—Victims Residents of North Dayton, Inhabited by Foreigners and Laborers. Conditions Reported Improved.

Dayton, O., March 29.—Based upon a personal canvass of almost 100 of Dayton's leading citizens, who have been engaged in relief and rescue work in every section of the city, the loss of life by the flood will not pass the two hundred mark. The property loss will probably reach $50,000,000. This includes damage to real estate and public works: to manufacturing, mercantile and jewelers' stocks which were swept away; public utility plants and equipment, and it includes also the cost of rebuilding miles of asphalt streets and walks, which were literally ripped from their beds.

Adjutant General Wood ordered that all saloons be kept closed and declared that no one will be permitted on the streets after dark. H. E. Talbott has been appointed chief engineering officer, with full control over all streets, roads and sewers.

The entire business section of Dayton is practically ruined. All stocks in basements and street floors were swept away by the flood and front windows demolished.

The loss of life is confined almost entirely to North Dayton, inhabited by foreigners and laborers. In West Dayton, which comprises districts of a more substantial character, in Riverville, in Daytonview and other resi-

FLOOD HERO SAVES OVER 200 PEOPLE

Columbus, O., March 29.—Saving the lives of 234 people single-handed is the accomplishment in which John Brady, laborer, 167 North Princeton avenue, West Side, is the heroic figure. When the flood broke Brady secured a leaky boat, which floated about, and then labored all day and a part of the night in taking families from the houses in the district between the old Scioto river channel and Central avenue, the part of the city worst affected, carrying them to safety at the Sun Manufacturing plant.

In dependence districts there was almost no loss of life. Several lives are known to have been lost in the business district, but none of the rumors that human beings had perished in the fire which swept two city blocks would stand the test of searching investigation.

The flood assumed dangerous aspects early Tuesday morning before most people had started to work. Consequently the loss of life in Riverville, North Dayton and West Dayton was occasioned when dwellings, mostly of light construction, were swept away and shattered by the swiftly moving current, leaving the occupants who had fled to safety in the second stories to fight for their lives in the water.

Charles Foster, his wife and six children were drowned while attempting to escape from their wrecked home. The wagon in which they were being conveyed to a place of safety overturned and all lost their lives.

Horrors of a flood refugee center were supplemented here by interest taken in an infant, for two days probably the sole occupant of a floating house. The baby, a girl, about two weeks old, was found wrapped in blankets and apparently little perturbed because of its perilous situation, and brought to the National Cash Register company police headquarters. There was nothing on the baby or found in a hurried inspection of the place where it was found, to indicate whom its parents might be.

A daring robbery was thwarted when the police arrested a man who was escaping from the city with a satchel containing $50,000 in diamonds and jewelry, which he had stolen from downtown jewelry stores.

Fifteen Dead at Eaton.

Eaton, O., March 29.—Fifteen persons are said to have given up their lives here as the result of the flood, waters of which are rapidly receding. Bodies were taken from several buildings. The property loss will approximate half a million dollars. A company of militia is doing guard duty.

Four Go Down With Bridge.

Delaware, O., March 29.—Four more were added to the list of persons known to be dead here. Frank Volk, 50; Charles E. Tibbals, 55; his son, Clark Tibbals, 17, and an unknown man, increased the list to 21. These four were on the Big Four bridge when it went down.

Burns to Death.

Lancaster, O., March 29.—In a fire which destroyed the home of J. M. Grogg, near Thurston, Edward McPeak, 26, a hired hand, was burned to death. The members of the family escaped in their night clothes.

Thousands of Women

Have Been Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

There is no doubt about this fact. Why during the last 30 years we have published in the newspapers of this country volumes of letters from women who have been relieved of all their suffering by the timely aid of this grand old medicine. Letters like the following, true, genuine and honest expressions of gratitude coming from grateful hearts. Surely you can believe these women.

Mrs. L. S. BRENNER, Hudson, Mich., says:

"Sometime ago I was taken with a terrible pain in my right side, such sharp pains just like a knife sticking me. I tried hot applications but that did no good. I went to our family doctor (we were living in Fayette, Ohio, at that time) and he said it was organic inflammation. I doctored with him a while but kept getting worse. The pain was so terrible I could hardly stand on my feet. I would have that sharp pain in my right side, and a dull heavy pain the whole length of my limb. I realized that something had to be done quickly, so I looked up all of your advertisements I could find, and saw several that described my case. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me from the first dose, and when I had taken two bottles my trouble was gone. Your medicine has done so much for me that I am willing you should publish this letter for the sake of other suffering women."—Mrs. L. S. BRENNER, Hudson, Michigan.

Mrs. L. E. BOWERS, Girard, Pa., says:

"I take pleasure in informing you of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had a sick spell last February, and for some months after that I was not regular and had many bad feelings. I was tired all the time, had dull headaches, not much appetite, and also what the doctor called organic inflammation. Your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me and I feel that too much cannot be said in its praise as I am now able to do my own work. You are perfectly welcome to use my testimonial for the benefit of others."—Mrs. L. E. BOWERS, R.F.D. No. 1, Girard, Pa.

Mrs. ELIZABETH GENTILCORE, Buffalo, N.Y., says:

"I feel that I must write to you about your wonderful remedies. About ten years ago I was troubled with female weakness and was all run down. I was tired all the time and could hardly walk without feeling dizzy. I heard about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, took it, and also used the Sanative Wash. I got stronger, and have not had those dizzy spells since. I feel that I owe my health to you, and hope your remedies will help others as they have me. I tried most everything I heard of, and yours are the best medicines for women's ailments."—Mrs. ELIZABETH GENTILCORE, 26 Glor Street, Buffalo, New York.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Zanesville, Ohio, March 29.—(2:30 p. m.)—R. C. Burton, president of the Chamber of Commerce said this afternoon that the damage loss would be between $6,000,000 and $8,000,000, 15,000 people are homeless. Rescuing parties have been unable to find any loss of life in Putnam or in the central part of the city and this cuts down the death list to almost minimum.

The body of Mrs. Northover, aged 65 years, was taken from her home at the corner of Blue and Keen streets this afternoon. She is said to have a son who is a special railroad officer in Columbus.

Zanesville, March 29.—(12:30 P. M.)—Major Bryan, representing Gov. Cox, arrived in Zanesville this morning and has taken charge of the situation. The business district between Canal and Fourth streets is entirely submerged. The buildings in that section are inundated and in danger of falling at any time. The report of the Boggs Hotel falling has not been verified. The walls of many of the big buildings are crumbling and it is feared they cannot be saved. On First, Second, Third and Fourth streets it seems that the current was the swiftest and it appeared as if the body of the river had been hurled in here. The smaller buildings were swept from their foundations and buried across the street, while many went down stream. Between Third and Main streets the water did much damage. The only report that has been verified of buildings falling is that of the Munson Music company, a building of three stories. A portion of that has collapsed and the remainder of the building is badly damaged.

A big hole, 200 feet long and 5 feet deep has been cut in the street at the corner of Third and Main streets.

Only two fires of any consequence have occurred. One destroyed the business of the Adams Brothers Contracting company and the other the stables of the Bert Mule Company.

The building occupied by the Independent 5 and 10 cents store is crumbling. Ex-Councilman George Flasher is missing and it is feared by his friends and relatives that he has been a victim of the flood. Undertaker Bateman, who was reported among those missing has been located and is safe.

In the lower end of Main street two cars belonging to the B. & O. railroad have been swung into the middle of the street.

One of the most pitiable incidents as well as the most terrible that has been uncovered, is that of Adam Yaest, a tower man employed by the Pennsylvania railroad. When the waters came on Tuesday night he was marooned on a box car. He remained there from Tuesday night until Friday night, suffering from cold, hunger, thirst, and exposure he became temporarily deranged. The only way that food was gotten to him was by walking out as far as possible on a cable wire and dropping the food into the stream. Some of it would then drift to him. Later it was tried to lasso him and carry him on the rope through the current, but he fought this. On Friday night a boat of the government dredging fleet was placed in commission and he was rescued from the top of the car. He was turned over to a physician.

The bridges authentically known to have been destroyed are the B. & O., two Pennsylvania bridges, the Ellis and the Zanesville old wooden bridge at Third street and the Sixth street bridges.

The inhabitants in estimating the damages speak only in millions and the consensus of opinion is that it will range from $7,000,000 to $12,000,000.

I saw the rescue of the first body made this morning. It was that of Mrs. Susannah Sloane, aged 68 years, and the wife of John A. Sloane. She had drowned Wednesday night but it was impossible to reach the body before. It was taken from the Sloane home in the south end of Linden avenue near Fifth street. On Wednesday night a man had been rescued from the same house by cutting

DIFFICULTIES IN GETTING TO ZANESVILLE

(By Staff Correspondent.)

Zanesville, Ohio, March 29.—After driving to Hanover, thence by the new Zanesville road to Irville and across to the Zanesville Terrace, Mr. Guy Watkins, wire chief of the Newark Telephone Company and myself spent the night at the home of a grocer living on the edge of the city. We crossed over the Terrace this morning and about 8 o'clock established a station at the corner of Van Horn and Linden avenue. The water on this street is still about three feet deep and higher up, the streets are almost impassable owing to the washed debris and mud.

The residents in this, the southern portion of the city are of the opinion that the death list will range between 25 and 50, although this is based merely on conjecture owing to the fact that it is almost impossible to communicate with the center of the city and Putnam where it is feared the death toll will be the heaviest.

In talking with Mr. J. V. Rhodes, manager of the telephone company, he said that the Sturdevant department store, the Elk's Club and the Loeb Clothing store all in Main street had collapsed.

There is but one bridge left standing, that being at Fifth street. The only means of reaching the stricken section of the city, is by boats to this bridge, cross the bridge, and thence by boat again. The bridges at Third, Sixth and Monroe streets are gone as well as the B. & O. railroad bridge. It is rumored that a portion of the "Y" bridge also has been destroyed.

An attempt will be made this morning by the manager of the telephone company, J. V. Rhodes and Guy Watkins, to trace wires into the center of the city today and thus establish communication which has been cut off since Wednesday morning.

F. E. Valentine, chief clerk of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, said this morning that the freight house, the passenger station and a portion of the round house had collapsed and been washed away. An engine and coach were left on the rails but are submerged by the water.

There is still ten feet of water in the streets, but the waters have receded ten feet since Friday morning.

Temporary police headquarters have been established in the

SITUATION AT DAYTON IMPROVING

Dayton, O., March 29.—The city water works was placed in commission today for the first time since Tuesday morning and will relieve what has been the most serious phase of the situation here.

George F. Burba, Governor Cox's secretary, sent the following telegram to the governor: "The situation is rapidly improving. Ninety bodies have been recovered and the work of digging corries from the mud and debris is proceeding."

PRES. WILSON WILL NOT BE NEEDED HERE

Washington, March 29.—Secretary of War Garrison telegraphed President Wilson today that it was perfectly safe to announce to the country that relief was being well taken care of by those on the ground and that it would not be necessary for him to leave Washington for the flood district.

PENNSYLVANIA BRIDGE DOWN AT ARLINGTON

Columbus, O., March 29.—The Pennsylvania railroad company's bridge across the Scioto at Arlington, outside of Columbus, went down this morning and when discovered had sunk three feet. This cuts off the only direct line to the city until it can be repaired.

JAMES M. COX.

APPEAL FOR MORE TROOPS AT PIQUA.

Columbus, Ohio, March 29.—An appeal for more troops was made to the adjutant general's office this morning by Captain Hubbard at Piqua. Capt. Hubbard said that much looting was going on. In response Major Smith was sent to Piqua with thirty men.

ATTENTION NOW ON OHIO VALLEY.

Louisville, Ky., March 29.—With the flood situation somewhat alleviated in the Ohio and Indiana cities which have suffered such marked situations during the past week, attention here is attracted today to the Ohio valley. A terrible overflow from the Ohio is not only expected but in the valleys of the White and Wabash rivers as well. Ample warning was given all persons living in the lowlands and it is believed there will be any fatalities as a direct result of the flood here and in the Mississippi valley.

Chillicothe, Ohio, March 29.—Lieut. Paul Cornell, with a detachment of Columbus signal corps, left for Zanesville with a relief train in charge of former Adjutant General Weybright. Cornell and his men are carrying wireless instruments and will repair outfit and will try to establish wireless communication from Zanesville to outside points.

SIGHTSEERS HAMPER RELIEF WORK.

Chillicothe, Ohio, March 29.—The first word to come from Chillicothe was received from the Associated Press this morning. It was to the effect that supplies were badly needed and that sightseers invading the city were greatly hampering the rescue work. Fifteen are known to be dead. Two bodies were seen floating down the river this morning and it is thought they came from Columbus. Richmond, a village about two miles from Chillicothe with 250 inhabitants, is completely wiped off the map, but it is thought that all the people escaped.

CONDITIONS AT DELAWARE.

C. A. Pence of Hebron, reached Delaware Friday by Hocking valley road, having had no word from his daughter Ruth, a student at Ohio Wesleyan University. Miss Pence was safe and returned failed to reach them.

southern portion of the city at the residence of L. K. Brown, corner of Adair and Myrtle avenues. All the able bodied men in this part of the town have been sworn in as police deputies and in lieu of the regulation badges, use strips of white muslin on which is written in pencil the word, "Police." Thus it was that their authority was established. These men work in parties of two or three and aid a company of militia to preserve order and prevent looting. Strict martial law has been established and no citizen is permitted on the street after 8 o'clock. The police are all equipped with either a lantern or an electric flash light, as the electric lighting system will not be restored for several days. There is no gas, and no water supply.

On Friday, provisions were brought to the city by the farmers from the nearby villages, but the citizens are protesting against the exorbitant prices asked, as they have boosted the price of eggs to 30 cents and other commodities accordingly.

It was reported in South Zanesville that a train load of provisions arrived on the Zanesville & Western late Friday afternoon. The Good Samaritan Hospital is filled with refugees as are the school houses and churches. The Zanesville Times-Recorder has been issuing what they call "Flood Bulletins," half-sheet posters, set up by hand and printed on a job press. These contain reports on the local conditions.

The water covered houses in points never touched by a flood before. It is conservatively estimated that the flood reached a stage 18 feet higher than ever before.

ROGGE HOTEL HAS NOT COLLAPSED.

Zanesville, Ohio, March 29.—(By way of Pittsburgh by telephone.) Four bodies had been recovered up to six o'clock this morning. The waters of the Muskingum river have reached to Second street. The rumor that the Rogge hotel collapsed is untrue. The Schulte theater building is in danger of falling.

PROVISION TRAIN OVER PENNSYLVANIA.

Major O'Brien, of Columbus, one of Governor Cox's right hand men and two other state officials arrived in this city about midnight Friday. They left Columbus a day or so ago, going by automobile down the National Pike as far as possible and discovered that the people of Zanesville were suffering from the lack of food. No report had been sent at that time from the Terrace, the resident part of Zanesville, lying on the hill north of the river and as all provisions were cut off, Major O'Brien came to Newark in an effort to get provisions to the people of that section. He left this city at six o'clock this morning on the Pennsylvania to Frazeysburg.

HEAVILY LOADED BLAIR TRUCK

MAKES SUCCESSFUL TRIP TO ZANESVILLE

The Blair auto truck carrying eight Central Union linemen, many coils of wire and other apparatus for the repair of telephone lines left Newark Friday at 3:30 p.m. in charge of Frederick Wright Jr. A telephone message from Zanesville announces that the truck reached the Muskingum river safely at 2 a.m., having been delayed on the way by the repair of telephone lines.

The truck encountered frightful roads from Newark to Zanesville via the National pike but the fact that it successfully made the trip carrying an immense load speaks volumes for this Newark-made product. General Manager Frank M. Blair was pleased to receive a report Saturday saying the truck had reached its destination but when Mr. Blair sent the truck on the trip he was confident that it would get over the road if any vehicle could make it.

LATEST NEWS FROM RELATIVES OF NEWARK PEOPLE IN FLOOD DISTRICTS

O. C. Jones received a letter Monday saying that his wife and sister would be in Cincinnati Wednesday, and up to date has been unable to get any word from them. He was also much worried about his daughter, Mrs. Malcomb Baker, who is in Dayton, and left Newark this morning to attempt to get to Dayton and locate her.

Mr. M. Sachs of the Cornel Clothing Company, received a telegram this morning from his mother, two sisters and a younger brother, who live in Dayton, saying that they were "safe but homeless." Mr. Sachs will attempt in some manner to reach Dayton. No word has been heard from Mrs. Sachs' family who also live in Dayton.

Mrs. Charles Andrews of Zanesville, who is visiting Mrs. E. A. Ford of Bolin avenue, is nearly frantic concerning the fate of her husband and five children who live at the corner of Moxahala and Lincoln avenues in that city. She has heard nothing from them.

GOVERNMENT SPECIAL TRAIN TO DAYTON ABANDONED FOR AUTOMOBILES

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 29.—After a conference this morning between Secretary of War Garrison and Major General Wood it was decided to abandon the special train to Dayton and proceed by automobile the rest of the way. It was also decided that Major General Wood should stay here and assist Mayor Hunt and the Red Cross Society to clear up the situation here. Accompanying Secretary Garrison will be Major General Rhodes and General McCoy. Major Connoisseur of the army corps and Captain Whaley of the medical corps will go to Hamilton to take charge of the situation in that city.

HARRY DAVIS' DAUGHTER SAFE.

Mrs. Harrington Davis of Granville street, rejoiced in the receipt of a message from Springfield Saturday morning announcing the safety of her little daughter, Linda, and her mother, Mrs. Thomas at Dayton.

Mr. Davis left for Dayton Thursday by automobile and his brother Will W. Davis got aboard a relief train at Columbus bound for Dayton in an effort to locate the family. The Springfield message brings word that Mrs. Thomas and the little girl with others of the family were found safe in the second story of the home on Ludlow street in the heart of the city of Dayton. Water had been nine feet deep at that point and the family had for four days lived in the second floor keeping warm by burning driftwood in a grate. They had time to take food and water to the second floor so suffered no great hardship during the time they were marooned by the flood.

Mr. Harry Davis and his cousin took the family to Mrs. Thomas' home in Oakwood a high suburb out of the flooded district and will bring his daughter home as soon as possible.

CONDITIONS ALONG OHIO RIVER.

Washington, March 29.—Flood Bulletin: The stage of the Ohio river at Pittsburgh was 24.6 feet this morning a fall of 5.6 feet since Friday morning. Reports from the stretch between Pittsburgh and Parkersburg are missing. At Cincinnati the morning stage was 66 feet, which is 16 feet above the flood stage and a further rise of 2 feet is expected.

Indications point to a somewhat lesser height than was predicted, it will be 68 feet rather than 70 feet the river reached 47.1 feet, which is 18 feet above the flood stage. A further rise is also expected here. Reports from Evansville, Ind., are missing. At Cairo the river reached 18.4 feet. The river at this point will rise slowly for the next few days. The flood situation on the lower Mississippi river is reported to be unchanged.

A REAL HUSKY.

"Is that big risk you took a good one?" inquired the president.

"Positive," replied the local manager. "The man has just been paroled from a Federal prison because he's no idea of his own; he only re-he hasn't much longer to live."

LOOTER WAS KILLED IN THE ACT TODAY BY COLUMBUS GUARD

Search for Bodies Saturday Morning Resulted in Finding of Fifty-Six Among Debris—Frantic Relatives Allowed to Look for Loved Ones.

Columbus, March 29.—(Noon.)—The work of the searching parties in the flooded Scioto district increased the list of bodies recovered to 56. The water was subsiding rapidly and the work of the rescuers is being made easier. Scores of transfer vans are transversing the inundated section of the district today carrying relief to hundreds marooned in the upper stories of the houses. Many of those marooned refused to leave their homes declaring that the worst was over and that they wished to stay with their property. The military authorities lifted the iron clad rules a trifle this morning and allowed hundreds to return to their homes in the flooded district from which the water has receded as they wish to clean up their property. Parties of searchers are exploring in the great drifts of debris as fast as the water goes down, for bodies of the flood victims. Hundreds of survivors are searching frantically for missing relatives.

A looter was shot and killed early today on the west side. The shot which killed him is said to have been fired by a private of the Marysville, O., guard. The body of the looter dropped into the water and it was impossible to rescue it. Many shots have been fired at looters on the east side by members of the guard.

Mr. Pence says 20 people in Delaware were drowned, the whole town was flooded and the C. D. & M. power plant 4 miles south was washed away. The Delaware papers flooded out are printing colored handbills giving local news only.

SITUATION CRITICAL IN VALLEYS

OF THE WABASH AND WHITE RIVERS.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 29.—Early recession of the flood waters in Indiana is expected to lift the veil that covers so closely what the less of life is in the cities in the Wabash and White river valleys. While the flood creeps down through the Ohio valley those of the White and Wabash rivers add to the horror. A work train on the B. & O. and Southwestern went through a trestle at Blue Culvert, two miles west of Peru last night and four trainmen are missing and are believed to have drowned. Relief work in Peru, Western Indians and Brooksville which were the worst stricken is progressing rapidly. Sixty bodies have been recovered in Brooksville, 20 are known to be dead in Peru but the search of all western Indianapolis thus far has failed to show any drownings.

RELIEF WORK THOROUGHLY ORGANIZED.

Columbus, Ohio, March 29.—A complete organization for the administration of relief work throughout the state was affected here today with the arrival from Washington of E. C. Bicknell, national director of the Red Cross society. Dr. E. T. Devine, of the New York division of the Red Cross, who managed the relief work at the San Francisco catastrophe also has arrived and will work with Mr. Bicknell.

CINCINNATI SITUATION IS CRITICAL.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 29.—With the Ohio river covering the entire lower section of this city and with refugees from the stricken districts up the state coming in here by the hundreds, Cincinnati faces a situation which will require the combined efforts of all its relief and civic organizations to cope with. The suffering will be minimized owing to the warnings sent out that the aggregate rise would be 70 feet. This city was practically cut off from communication with Covington last evening when the approach to the suspension bridge was covered with water and preventing carriage or foot service between the two cities.

NEWARK TRAIN AT ZANESVILLE.

B. & O. relief train from Newark reached West Zanesville at 10 o'clock this morning. Another train with supplies from Columbus passed through Newark at about 1 o'clock this afternoon.

TONS OF LIME ARE DISTRIBUTED

BY THE NEWARK BOARD OF HEALTH.

The Board of Health of the city received ten tons of lime this morning and it has been distributed over the city. The people are asked to distribute it at once over the yards and in the cellars. The Board of Health also urgently requests that all the people boil the drinking water.

TEXAS REMEMBERS HER DIRE NEED.

Houston, Texas, March 29.—A sum of $8,000 has been subscribed to the fund collected by the Houston Post, a newspaper, for the relief of the sufferers in the Ohio and Indiana flooded districts.

DAYTON DEAD PROBABLY ABOUT 200.

Dayton, Ohio, March 29.—Dayton awoke this morning wondering if the latest estimate concerning those who had lost their lives in that city was accurate. With the 82 bodies recovered and with nearly every section of the city explored by life saving crews and newspaper men it is thought that the first tremendous loss of life reported would be reduced to 150 or 200. After a meeting of seven-eighths of the undertakers of the city last night it was announced that the general consensus of opinion at the meeting had been that the dead would total 800.

FLOOD NOTES

Mrs. C. M. McVey Saturday morning received a telegram from her son, Mr. B. H. McVey, former Newark newspaper man, now of Erie, Pa., that he was in good health but flood-bound in Cleveland, and would be home as soon as possible.

Word was received by the parents of Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, of 14 Hoover street, that she has been rescued from the flooded district in Columbus, and is now safe. Miss Armstrong and Miss Anna Smith, both formerly of this city, were employed at the Beggs department store until the flood. The young ladies had rooms on State street, and when the flood came were taken to one of the factories nearby and from Tuesday till Thursday were without food. They will surely get you well again.

Are You Constipated? If so, get a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills, take them regularly and your trouble will quickly disappear. They will stimulate the liver, improve your digestion and get rid of all the poisons from your system. They will surely get you well again.

OBITUARY

CATHERINE SWIGERT.

Mrs. Catherine Swigert was born November 11, 1841, near Lancaster, O., and died March 22, 1913, aged 71 years, four months and eleven days. She leaves to mourn her departure two daughters and two sons. Besides her children there survive nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She was the last member of her immediate family and has been a sufferer practically all her life, but has always been patient and cheerful in the midst of bodily affliction. Besides her immediate family she leaves a large number of more distant relatives and a host of friends to mourn her death.

MISS HAZEL M. PETTINGELL.

Miss Hazel M. Pettingell, who has taken the position as acting general secretary of Young Women's Christian Association, will speak at the Vesper Hour of the Sunday Afternoon At Home on the subject, "Our Open Doors." All those interested in the Association will be glad to hear of the open doors in the local Y. W. C. A.

Miss Pettingell comes from the Toledo Y. W. C. A. where she has had a broad experience in the Association there. She is enthusiastic over the prospects of the local work, which is now being well organized. Several new departments are being opened, including the Camp Fire for the younger girls, and the Extension work for the young women employed in the shops and factories. Plans are also being made for a summer camp situated conveniently near to the city so that those who are employed during the day may spend a night, week-end, or longer period of rest and recreation in the out-of-doors.

Mrs. MARY RUBLE.

Mrs. Mary Ruble, aged 62 years, widow of David Ruble, died Thursday morning at 4 o'clock at her home in Licking township after an illness of some time of tuberculosis. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Franklin Weathers. The funeral will be held Sunday at the Fairmont church at 10 o'clock.

Doctors Failed to Cure Him—Goodhair Soap Did the Work in Three Days.

"For a long time I have suffered and been annoyed with a breaking out on the back of my hands, the doctors called it salt-rheum. My hands were in such an awful condition I was ashamed to have them seen, so if I did not have a pair of old gloves on I would keep my hands in my pockets to prevent undue attention. Consulted several doctors and tried a number of remedies without any good results. Mr. J. L. Bolton of this city gave me two little samples of Goodhair Soap, requesting me to use it. At first application it caused a good deal of irritation, but gave me benefit and in three days time my hands were entirely well."

Cure For Quinsy.

It is stated that the juice of the fresh pineapple has been successfully used in quinsy.

When the abscess has formed and the overlying tissues have become damaged the juice readily digests them, opens the abscess without pain, obviates the use of a surgeon's knife and shortens by several hours or days the period of misery often endured by the timid person who is afraid of a surgical operation.

In cases where a boil has come to a head and the patient is afraid of the knife the application of fresh pineapple pulp will cause the tissues to dissolve and give relief in a short time.

HUNDRED DEAD AT HAMILTON

Hamilton, O., March 29.—(11 a. m.)—Less than a hundred is the estimate today of the dead here from the flood. As the water recedes the evidence of the damage done to property is appalling but the death toll it is believed will not exceed 100.

Piled high on the east side of the court house are numbers of caskets awaiting the flood victims, whose bodies are being gathered as rapidly as possible. The military is on guard in the city.

THE NATIONAL GUARD

The Ohio National Guard is proving its efficiency in the present crisis. The militiamen are on duty throughout the flooded district of Ohio and their response to call to duty has been prompt and their service is admirable.

The point in mind is that the Ohio National Guard is organized just as much for service of this sort as it is to restore order in case of rioting or other disturbance growing out of any kind of conflict.

A Little Talk About Values

By JOHN P. FALCON.

You value things by their usefulness, beauty, intrinsic worth, sentimental worth, or historic worth. You value most of the things you buy first by their utility and second by their pleasing qualities.

Some things are intended for service, others simply to look at and admire, while many things have both a useful and ornamental value.

Take two articles alike in form, but much different in quality. One may be a real bargain at a dollar while the other would be dear at fifty cents. The reason for this is that the article of superior quality will give three or four times the service, wear, satisfaction and usefulness. In order to get the best value that money can buy, one must exercise judgment.

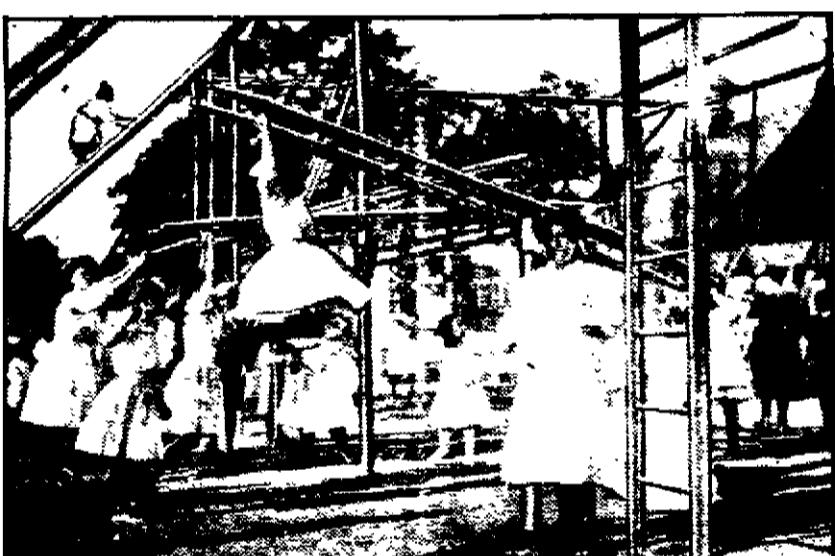

You need have little doubt, however, of the value offered by the merchants who advertise in THE ADVOCATE. These merchants are known by the values they give. They know that a reputation for honest values is their most valuable asset and strive to give their customers the greatest values obtainable. Read their advertisements in THE GLOBE closely and constantly every day and then you will have little need to worry about values.

BACKBONE OF WINTER

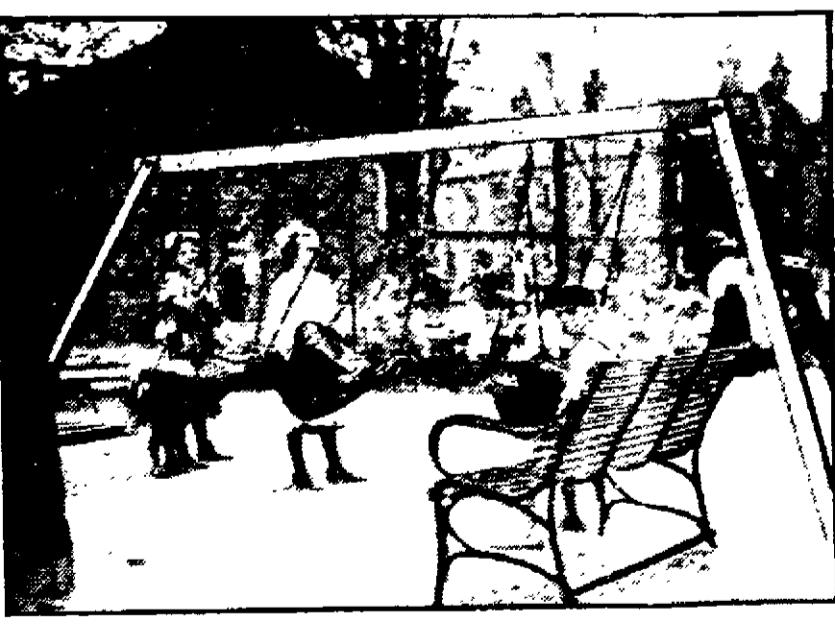

The winter seems ended, the soft vernal breezes come up from the southland, refreshing and sweet; we bid a farewell to the north wind that breezes, we think we are done with the snow and the sleet; and just when we're sure that old winter lies dead, as dead as the deadliest of petrified men, the wind swings around to the northwest of Sweden, the backbone of winter gets busy again; that ruddy old backbone, that voluntary backbone, that militant backbone gets busy ag'in. We tire of cold weather; we view it with loathing, and as soon as a robin is seen on the lawn, we say, "It's time for our light underclothing;" we take off our flannels and put them in pawn. And then we've the grip and the jumping pneumonia; we furnish a snap for the medical men; they fill us with pills and with remedies phonies; the backbone of winter is busy again; that dodgester backbone, that cintwisted backbone, that daubtless backbone is busy again. It's not safe to bet that the winter is over till hens go to setting and horses shed hair, till bees are a-buzzing around in the clover, and tiles are so thick that they make father swear. So often we're fooled by the harbingers vernal, the previous bud and the premature wren, and wake from our dream to conditions infernal—the backbone of winter is busy again; the foolish old backbone, that impudent backbone, that heartbreakin' backbone is busy again.

PLAYGROUND CAMPAIGN OPENS MONDAY

Although the week has been a most discouraging one to those who were interested in the campaign to raise $3,000 for equipping public playgrounds, there is much to encourage. Probably no other city in central Ohio has been left so free from flood destruction as Newark. All Newark goes out in sympathy for our neighboring cities, yet all Newark has cause for rejoicing. That Newark is one-fourth of the total amount $3,000 generous city was again shown on is already pledged. It is hoped that

Wednesday morning, when in a few one-half the amount will be secured.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. John Price of Hebron delightfully entertained Easter Sunday the following at dinner: Mr. and Mrs. John Kolp and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Price and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Beidler McGinnis and children, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Price and daughters, Mrs. Rachel Price, Mr. and Mrs. C. Price and daughter. All enjoyed a pleasant day in the country.

About twenty-five of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Beidler McGinnis gathered at their home on East Main street, Hebron, to help them celebrate their tenth wedding anniversary. Many beautiful presents were presented them in remembrance of the happy occasion. The evening was pleasantly spent with music and a delicious luncheon, served by the hostess, to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Price and daughter, Mrs. Henry Hutzell, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Johnson, Mrs. Darla Shands, Mrs. John Price, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burdette and two sons, Mrs. Ella White, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. McGinnis and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Price and daughter, Miss Pauline LeCron.

On Thursday afternoon at her home on Maple avenue, Mrs. C. F. Parks entertained the Art Embroidery club. The afternoon was spent in sewing and social conversation after which a dainty collation was served to the members and three guests, Mrs. Murray Cummings, Mrs. John Coon and

Why They Were Parasites

"ATTENDED a lecture today," said Phoebe to the little group in the studio, "and—"

"I thought you looked improved," interrupted one of the girls. "I do not know that I am improved," said Phoebe, "but I am terribly saddened."

"Goodness!" exclaimed the crowd. "What happened?"

"I discovered I am a parasite," replied Phoebe, mournfully. "Now my idea of a parasite is that it is something that eats roses, and is treated to a dose of slugshot. And I am wondering whether I am doomed either to destroy the rose-leaves of life, or be given a bath of insecticide."

"What makes you a parasite?" asked Marjorie.

"Because I eat rose leaves," replied Phoebe, gloomily; "or to be scientific, because I consume and don't produce, or to be frank because I do nothing useful."

"What could you do?" inquired another of the girls.

"That's the trouble," responded Phoebe. "Even if I did something useful, I don't see the use in doing it. Suppose I went about and trimmed hats, or made dresses, or scrubbed floors. What would be the value of my doing it? I would be employing my time, to be sure, but I do that anyway. I don't need the money I would earn; and somebody else might need very badly, the money I would be getting for a job that otherwise might be hers."

"That's just it," broke in one of the girls. "It's all very well to tell us not to be parasites. But why aren't we told what to do. I'm doing settlement work. But I feel I am just putting in time. It is nothing vital as far as myself is concerned."

"You're right," said another girl. "I've been made president of the Town Improvement Society, and we are hustling around trying to see how we can improve this village of ours. It's all very well, and I hope we'll make it the City Beautiful. But it is a case of my hunting the work, not the work hunting me. I would rather feel there was some definite demand for me, which nobody but myself could fill. Then I would feel that I was really of use."

"I embroider," said another girl. "And burn wood, and hammer brass, and do such things; but I can't say I am wildly excited about them, or that the world wouldn't wag on just the same if I didn't do them."

"And I chase dust," joined in Helen. "But I can't see the absolute necessity of a house being spotless. And I might as well sit and twirl my thumb as darn stockings; for I can hire someone to darn them who probably needs the money."

"I guess we'll just have to make up our minds to being parasites," said Phoebe, whether we want to or not. Only, I do hope," and she gave an apprehensive glance over her shoulder, "that nobody will come around and give us a dose of slugshot."

Have You Nasal Catarrh?

Can you breathe freely through your nose? I mean can you breathe through each nostril? If not, do you know what the reason is? It is nasal catarrh. It may not be for advanced. You may not have given thought of catarrh, or given the matter very much heed in any way. But if you find that you cannot breathe freely through each nostril, be sure there is something wrong. Nature intended you to breathe through the nostrils. Both nostrils.

Try first one, then the other. Every morning when you get up practice deep breathing through the nostrils. Put your finger on one nostril and hold it tight while you breathe through the other. Backwards and forwards, do this.

At the same time you should take Peruna. The dose on the bottle is one teaspoonful. You had better make it three teaspoonfuls. The reason why I direct this is because I want you to take a teaspoonful of the Peruna and as you swallow it down breathe the fumes of it out through the nose. Then the next teaspoonful do the same thing, and so on until the three teaspoonfuls are taken. This, however, is after you have thoroughly cleansed your nose by deep breathing.

While you are practicing the deep breathing you may stuff up the nose a little salt water. A teaspoonful to the quart of warm water.

But after you have thoroughly cleansed your nose then take the Peruna as above directed. Do not put it off. Do it now. Do it before your nose gets bad. If only one nostril is partially stopped now it will not remain so long. It will stop up entirely. The other will be stopped, too. Begin again during the recent Wilson and Taft campaign. This was immediately followed by a spate of a "circus Barker" introducing lion trainers and other performers, this proved to be some more scream. At an early hour the party departed for their various homes after the enjoyable gathering.

The recital given last evening at the home of Mr. A. A. Stasel by Prof. F. J. Shaw and his violin pupils, was a very creditable affair, showing marked improvement in the playing of his pupils, and also that Prof. Shaw has that rare gift—which so few teachers possess—that of imparting his knowledge to his pupil. Professor Shaw shows that he is not only a fine teacher, but in the solo he rendered, that he is an artist also of the first order.

Newark has the reputation of not being up to date in music, as other cities of its size, and the work that Professor Shaw is doing, is having a decided influence in placing Newark in this respect where it ought to be.

Gene Schiebel entertained with a five course dinner after the performance Friday evening at the Kuster & Co. restaurant, to Director H. E. Sturz, "Pon" Sank, the Browning Sisters and a number of other members of the Order of Elks who participated in the performances from other cities.

FIREMAN

FROM NEWARK ON B. & O. TRAIN WAS MAROONED IN CINCINNATI.

Came to Newark Friday afternoon and brings News of Other Marooned Men.

The following men and men arrived in Columbus Friday afternoon from Cincinnati: Arthur Cornell and Molden, engineers; Flynn and McKinney, brakemen, and Earl Forbes, fireman. Several other men are at the Daily House, the Cincinnati hotel where the railroad people make their headquarters while they are as far as can be reached.

In speaking with Earl Forbes this afternoon, who roomed at 15 Buena Vista street, the following story was received:

They, Cornell and Forbes, left Newark last Monday on their run from Columbus to Cincinnati on the B. & O., reaching Cincinnati Tuesday evening at the Daily House.

Thursday the manager of the hotel told the men that they didn't have enough provisions for them and asked them to leave. They left about 8:30 that evening, walking to Milford, about twenty miles from Cincinnati.

At this place they took a trolley car to Blawhester, and a train from there to Broad street, Columbus. At this street they were forced to walk west about eight miles to the Pennsylvania bridge before they could get into Columbus so as to come to Newark. Mr. Cornell returned to Columbus Saturday morning.

No one can get within eight miles of the Union depot in Cincinnati, and nearly every bridge has been moved more or less distance from its proper place.

Winton Place is in a direct line with the worst part of the flood and is suffering more than any other section.

Proctor & Gamble Soap factory was partly washed away, as well as houses and sheds, all being swept down the river.

No fires as yet have occurred in Cincinnati, and owing to the slow rising of the river no lives are endangered.

Tuesday the river rose to a height of eight feet in a few hours, but since then a slow and steady rise has followed.

The B. & O. people have transferred all cars, engines, etc., to Oakley, a suburb.

Train No. 104, with McKitreec as engineer and Shaffer conductor, both of this city, are safe at Blawhester.

Forbes' parents live at Eldon, 18 miles east of Cambridge, and he can get no word to them of his safety.

Mr. Cornell is a brother of the sporting editor of the Chicago Examiner, and has been giving that paper valuable news from Columbus.

PRESCRIPTIONS

Filled Promptly and Correctly at City Drug Store at All Times

The correct compounding of medicines is one of the most essential things to a drug store and this is one of the many good features that has made the City Drug Store so popular. Three registered pharmacists are constantly employed at this store and when you take a prescription there you are assured of its being correctly filled and of receiving prompt and courteous attention.

Some people have a mistaken idea that they are compelled to take the prescription to the druggist whose name appears upon the slip of paper on which it is written. Sometimes this is accidental, as all druggists are glad to furnish prescription blanks to all doctors. Then sometimes there are personal reasons why a doctor wishes to throw patronage to some particular drug store—but no matter how it may be, the City Drug Store will be glad at all times to fill your prescriptions and assures you that it will be correctly compounded and purest and freshest of medicines will be used.

Have You Seen the Big Hupmobile, 126-In. Wheel Base, 6 Passenger?

If Not Come to the Show Next Week From March 31 to April 5 at the Auditorium Garage, Newark, O.

This is the Hupmobile, a car every motorist today considers and compares. It is one of the most interesting automobiles in the 1913 series. It offers at a moderate price a big, successful touring car.

LOOK AT IT—Where else can you get at this price its graceful lines, rich color, spacious body and dependable chassis? To obtain another car as well known and well built with its advantages would cost you much more money.

The expenditure of the same amount would give a machine not the equal of the Hupmobile 32. They have been better each succeeding year; they are better now than ever. The Hupmobile company is a firmly established and highly regarded concern. Its dealers are reputable business men.

Do not miss an opportunity to see this handsome, reliable, luxurious Hupmobile at the Auditorium Garage, next week. You'll enthuse over it too.

Ask us about its details. Get or send for a demonstration at once.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

The Sly Old Trout Enjoyed Tommy's Fishing.

THE big boy at the corner is going fishing tomorrow. Can't I go, too?" Jack asked. "He says I can go."

"Ugh, and have a lot of horrid worms to fish with! I saw him digging them up in his yard today," exclaimed Evelyn.

"Once there was a little boy named Tommy Perkins," daddy began. "Tommy wanted to go fishing. He asked his father and mother, and they said yes if he would be very careful not to fall into the water."

"Tommy spent nearly a whole day digging worms for bait. He put them into a tin pail, and he had a great many of them."

"I'm going to catch a whole lot of fish," Tommy Perkins said as he kissed his mother goodby.

"Tommy went walking off with his little basket of luncheon on one arm and the pail of worms on the other. He carried his fishing rod very carefully. It was a brand new one. This was the first time he had ever gone fishing."

"When he reached the brook, Tommy Perkins sat down and fixed his rod. He put a nice large worm on it. A big fat trout that was swimming by saw the worm and called to his friends:

"Hey, fellows, here's a boy come down to the brook to give us a treat! Come on; there's a nice fat worm on his fishing line. I'm going to get it, but there are a heap more in the pail. You can have some too!"

"Of course all this was said in fish talk, and Tommy couldn't understand it, but the fishes must have heard, because in a few minutes a lot of them had gathered there."

"The first one had whisked the worm off the hook and darted away before Tommy knew what had happened. He was a smart old fish was that trout and he wasn't going to be caught by any little boy on his first fishing trip."

"Tommy put another and another worm on the hook. The fishes gurgled with delight. It was so easy for anything."

"Tommy ate his lunch thoughtfully. He had sandwiches and cookies and apple pie. Tommy ate every bit of it. It tasted fine."

"When Tommy finished eating he picked out another fat worm."

"I don't see why I can't catch anything," he complained. "These are perfectly good worms, I'm sure."

"So they were, and the next fish that came along showed that he thought so by grabbing it off the hook and sailing away with what looked like a grin on his face. Really it was very provoking to a little boy fisher."

"And Tommy fished all afternoon. When he started to go home he hadn't a worm left, and all the fish were still in the brook. Well, the fish had a good time, and so had Tommy, but I'm not sure that the worms liked it so well."

NEWARK SENDS PROVISIONS AND BOATS TO ZANESVILLE AMONG FIRST TO GIVE AID

Special Train With Supplies and Soldiers
Leaves B. & O. Station at 7:30
a. m. Saturday

Five Hundred Dollars Appropriated From Advocate
Relief Fund—Motor and Row Boats Sent to Aid Sufferers—Train Under Weybrecht's Command.

Fifteen cars loaded with provisions, clothing and supplies including two cars of motor and rowboats for relief of the flood-sufferers at Zanesville, left Newark at 7:30 a. m. Saturday on the B. & O. for Dillon's Falls, four miles west of Zanesville.

In the train was a car load of groceries, meats, milk, medicine, and clothing sent from Newark. The two car loads of boats came from Buckeye Lake.

The train was made up in Columbus and under General Weybrecht of Columbus and carried a car load of Columbus militia men.

One hundred and fifty feet of track had been washed away but the repair work was finished at 5 a. m. so as to permit the special train to pass. From Dillon's Falls or Dillon Tower the supplies must be carried in wagons, auto or horse-back to the stricken city.

A Baltimore & Ohio freight car loaded with provisions for the Zanesville flood sufferers and containing motor boats and row boats from Buckeye Lake to be used in the rescue of people who are marooned by the high waters, left Newark early Saturday morning. James F. Irwin in charge of the transportation expected to get through to Dillon's Falls by rail and from that point the short trip to Zanesville will be made by teams.

When the news from Zanesville this afternoon brought to Newark realization of the need of immediate arrangements were quickly made by the local relief committee to send assistance to the Muskingum city. A meeting was held in the Board of Trade room late Friday afternoon for Columbus.

MOTORMAN GIVES EXPERIENCE OF MANY HOURS TERRIFIC STRAIN
SUFFERED BY HIM AND COMPANIONS

Perry Richards of 47 North Pine, looks bad. No relief as long as it 4 motormen on the Ohio Electric, rained.

Told a graphic story to an Advocate representative. With his conductor, W. H. Smith, he was caught 2 1/2 miles from Zanesville and another car was Motorman Martin Luther.

Conductor Jesse Cason, was also stalled and Mr. Richards gives their experience as follows:

"On Friday, March 25, the water left off the instant an 8" H-25s at 1:30 p. m. We made our relief at 3 p. m. at West Zanesville and were driven through the water at State street in order to get to our cars. We ran our cars toward Newark for one-half mile and stayed at this point until 6 p. m. and there ran for another one-half mile.

At this time the water was not over 100 feet from us. We had no power, so in case the water reached us we were stuck. We made exploring trips every five hours and were lucky in being close to a farm house where they were kind enough to loan us a bed.

There was not much for us to do but smoke and read and our time was about exhausted.

Conductors Smith and Cason had started for Zanesville for supplies but we were afraid they would not get through.

We were awakened up at 3 a. m.

We had some colored people who were driven out of their homes

We slept in our cars and made beds out of cushions from the seats. This is very nicely but is not like a bed in your home.

Our first went out on us and when we woke up in the morning we were cold and stiff. We were lucky again. When our coal gave out we had a car load standing on a siding not over 10 feet away. We did not worry much only we were afraid we wouldn't be able to get home for a week or ten days. We could not see anywhere anywhere as the lines were cut off bus lines. We would have known how our families were

It was terrible when you thought about the homes that were not burn good in the stoves. We were cold all night but we kept in good humor by telling stories and kidding each other.

Thursday a. m.—It has turned colder, but it is not raining so much and the water is not rising fast.

We have been to breakfast and it is now snowing. We are suffering more from cold. We got wet last night moving the cars and with not much fire we could not dry our clothes and shoes. Smith and I have been to Zanesville to try to telephone to Newark. All phones are out of business. We had no idea of the water being so high. The sight is awful. People are living in hospitals, school houses and fire departments.

The groceries have sold out and there is grave danger of starvation.

There is no way to get supplies as all railroads are cut off.

We walked about four miles around and got a fellow with a boat to row us across the low land. When we got into the city we expected to get someone with a boat to take us to the Fifth street bridge but when we saw how far we would need to row in order to get on the bridge, houses and barns floating around, we decided to abandon the trip. Our trip across the bridge might have been in vain, as we could get no satisfaction in regard to whether we could get a boat on the other side.

Friday a. m.—After breakfast

we made an exploring trip and found the water had fallen about 14 inches during the night. We had the best night's sleep since we were shut off by the water and borrowed some bed clothes from Mr. Brown with which to keep us warm.

"Left the cut at 9 a. m. and walked the B. & O. tracks all the way to Black Hand. We stopped at Dillon's

Falls and sent a message to Superintendent Clunie. We rode a hand car from Dillon's Falls to Pleasant Valley and then walked to Black Hand, got dinner at Black Hand, crossed over to the O. E. tracks, walked to Clay Lick where we met the line car and they brought us to Newark."

President Evans appointed committee to secure groceries, meat, milk, bread and medicine and instructions were given to have the supplies delivered to the freight station. Friday evening The Advocate's third edition issued at 6:30 p. m.

gave a report of this meeting and requested people to send clothing and provisions to the B. & O. station.

As a result of this appeal a great many people took supplies and clothing to the car and the response was very generous.

W. C. Wells, H. P. Scott and A.

H. Rickett accompanied the train

Saturday morning to assist in the distribution of the provisions and

Flints on Hair Health

If you use our treatment, we will either stop your hair from falling or pay for the treatment expenses.

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a mite, which if not removed causes baldness. This mite often comes from a comb or brush belonging to someone else.

If you are troubled with dandruff, flaking scalp, falling hair, or baldness, we believe that Rennell "83" Hair Tonic will do more than anything else to remove the dandruff, destroy the germs, make the scalp healthy and falling hair, and, if there is any life left in the roots, also promote growth of new hair.

We believe that probably 95 per cent of the cases could be cured if people would only use Rennell "83" Hair Tonic for a reasonable time, as directed.

We don't want you to take our word for this. We want you to test the merits of Rennell "83" Hair Tonic at our risk. If you use it and it does not give satisfaction, just come back to us and tell us, and we will immediately hand back to you the money you paid for it. You promise nothing, sign nothing, and your mere word will be taken for it.

We are dependent upon your confidence and patronage, and we would not make these claims, or make this offer if we did not believe that Rennell "83" Hair Tonic is the very best hair preparation you can use. Two sizes of bottles, 50c and $1.00.

You can buy Rennell "83" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store:

New York, March 29.—James E. Hussey and James F. Thompson, police inspectors, and Captain John J. Murtha, formerly acting inspector, were indicted on charges of bribery as a result of the district attorney's crusade against graft in the police department. Two patrolmen and a civilian alleged to be a graft collector also were indicted. Nineteen indictments were handed down and bench warrants issued for the six men involved.

Floyd Allen and His Son Claude Are Executed in Virginia.

Richmond, Va., March 29.—Floyd Allen, leader of the outlaw band in Carroll county, was executed in the state penitentiary. The aged prisoner, terribly unshaven by the excitement incident to the delay of six hours in carrying out the sentence, went to the chair bravely. The prison guards next brought Claude Swanson Allen, son of Floyd, into the death chamber. He was executed without a hitch.

HEAVY SWELL IN OHIO RIVERSections of Cincinnati and Environs Under Water.*RISE MAY SMASH RECORDS

Weather Forecasters Predict the Seventy-Foot Mark Will Be Reached, If Not Surpassed—Conditions Becoming Serious On the Kentucky Side, Covington and Newport Being Partly Submerged.

Cincinnati, O., March 29.—This city is facing the worst flood in its history. The Ohio river continues to rise, increased in volume by the flood waters from tributary streams east and north of here. The indications are that before many hours have passed the gauge will reach 70 feet, almost the mark of 1884, the record year.

Streetcar lines soon will have to be abandoned and it is feared that before many hours the lines into Cincinnati will have to cease operations. This also is true of Covington lines. Electric light and gas plants also are threatened with early stoppage.

Weather forecasters here expressed conviction that by night the river would reach 68 feet and would go to the 70-foot mark early next week, probably Monday. The weather bureau also declared there would be a further rise of five to 10 feet at all points above here within the next two or three days.

At Cincinnati the conditions have not yet reached an acute stage, but it is feared that soon they will. All the lowland to the west and east of the city has been submerged, and also along the water front of the business section the lower floors of the commercial houses are gradually disappearing under the yellow waves of the river. No loss of life has occurred here, due to the precautions of the authorities.

Across the river along the Kentucky shore conditions are rapidly becoming worse. At Covington more than 500 houses are reported submerged and their occupants are being given shelter and protection in the public buildings that have been thrown open to them.

Plans are being formulated to care for flood sufferers, and a meeting was held at Covington at which the problem was given consideration and arrangements made to raise a sufficient fund for the purpose. At the same time arrangements also were made for policing the flood district and preventing looting.

Newport, which with Covington is opposite Cincinnati, form the larger of the suburban sections, is in almost as bad a case as its neighboring city. The flood water is rising in all parts of the town and in many sections has filled the cellars of houses for the second time within a year.

Many Towns Flooded.

Gallipolis, O., March 29.—The most disastrous flood since 1884 is sweeping down the Ohio river valley. Gallipolis is the only dry town within a distance of 75 miles either way. Pomeroy, Middleport, Point Pleasant, Syracuse, Racine, Clifton and Mason City are flooded. Cold weather has added to the suffering of victims of the high waters.

Reservoir Out of Danger.

Rockwood, O., March 29.—The Celina reservoir is declared out of danger. The water here is slightly lower and none is flowing over the banks. Celina, on the west, and St. Marys, on the east bank, reported the reservoir holding. There were no fatalities near here, but 13 miles north of Van Wert three bodies of unidentified men were taken from a creek.

Deserted Baby Found.

Columbus, O., March 29.—"Walter Taylor, 94 North Princeton avenue," reads a card found upon a baby less than two years old, found alone in a house on the stricken West Side. The child wore a bearpark coat and was clean and neat as if its parents had recently cared for it. The baby is being kept by the nurses at a hospital. Its parents are missing.

Thirty-two Dead.

Cincinnati, O., March 29.—Another flood-stricken village was heard from when Coroner Foertmeyer was notified that 32 lives had been lost at Venice, Butler county. The dead were members of five families. One mother was saved. Three bodies have been recovered. The postoffice of the Venice settlement is at Rose.

Parkersburg Under Water.

Parkersburg, W. Va., March 29.—More than half the business district of Parkersburg and part of the residence section are under water and the Ohio river is still rising. The gas, electric and water plants went out of commission and streetcars stopped operation. The property damage in this section already is tremendous.

Aid Dayton and Chillicothe.

Washington C. H., O., March 29.—Residents of this city sent six car-loads of provisions and clothing to the flood sufferers and a quantity of the needs to Chillicothe. Though the flood damage in Fayette county was very large, there were no fatalities.

WHOLE COUNTRY RESPONDS TO APPEALGovernor Cox Will Have Money For Flood Sufferers.

Columbus, O., March 29.—Governor Cox has received to date relief funds in excess of $2,000. From the stack of telegrams renders on his desk he estimated the total to come would exceed $1,000. Donations started from $55,500 sent by the Cleveland chamber of commerce to $1, mailed from the penitentiary by Isaiah Koon, a convict, who wrote: "I am a prisoner and have children that might need help."

In addition the New York World advised the governor it was sending $10,000, of which $1,000 was received by the City National bank of this city. Governor Osborne wired the Michigan legislature had appropriated $25,000. Governor Dunne of Illinois wired that a bill appropriating $100,000 had been introduced.

Colonel M. L. Wilson, treasurer of the state relief committee with Isaac D. Pugh of County Auditor Sayre's office, as special accountant, lost no time in drawing sight drafts on donors who wired they could be drawn upon. Among the donors are: Alton B. Parker, $5,000; city of Oakland, Cal., $5,000; Mayor Arnold of Denver, $2,050; Mayor Snow, Fresno, Cal., $1,000; Commercial Club, Salt Lake City, $2,000; W. U. Telegraph company, $1,500; Spokane Chamber of Commerce, $1,000; Commercial Club, Fargo, N. D., $500.

The first United States government relief train reached Columbus with 200,000 rations, tents for 20,000 people, 29,000 blankets, 400 stoves, 100 ranges, 8,900 cots and 100 hospital tents. To care for anticipated need at Cincinnati 3,000 blankets and 3,000 bed sacks were sent there. A train load of supplies sent by the United States army is en route to Ohio with engineer officers, who were on duty in the Mississippi valley last year and so are experienced in flood work. These have been assigned to Fort Wayne, Cincinnati, Youngstown and Hamilton. A medical officer, with 60 hospital corps men, has been ordered to the Columbus barracks.

McIntyre to Join Indians.
Indianapolis, Ind., March 29.—Matty McIntyre, former slugger with the Tigers and Sox, and last year with San Francisco, will become an Indian. He bought his own robe and wants a job here. McIntyre went to Detroit after a conference with Kelly. He will report later this week.

WARD & RUGG AGENTS

has a chance to take up a new life. His father is sent to prison. He is released just in time to inject himself into the budding romance of his daughter. However, the good lad again enters into the plot and foils the father, saving the girl from disgrace. All ends well when she marries the man of her choice, an army officer. The picture is said to be very interesting one.

THE LIGHT ETERNAL RETURNS.

"The Light Eternal," a magnificently staged religious drama which may be likened in a general way to "Ben Hur," "Clandin," or "The Sign of the Cross," will be presented at the Auditorium Wednesday matinee and night, April 2. The play, in its theme and incidents, and a considerable amount of its dialogue, has been derived from Cardinal Wiseman's brilliant religious-historical romance, "Fathers." The period in which the action is laid is in the beginning of the fourth century, and the scenes take the audience to the Rome of the Caesars at the time of its greatest grandeur. Christianity and paganism are shown in their final deadly conflict. Brilliant historical pictures of the gorgeously imperial times are presented and are handsomely staged. The two themes of love and religion are blended into a romantic story that is at once appealing and devout. The stage settings are massive and the costumes gorgeous. Seats go on sale Monday.

AT THE RISK OF HIS LIFE.

A special feature photoplay that has caused a sensation wherever it has been presented is "At the Risk of His Life," which has been booked for next Monday and Tuesday, March 31, and April 1, with matinées daily. This big feature tells a wonderful story of Devil's great sacrifice and shows Devil's Law 10,000 feet above the earth in a balloon. When the balloon is in this height the anxious watchers on the ground below are horrified to see a cloud of smoke encircle the balloon and a second later they are deafened and thrown off their feet by a frightful explosion. From the midst of this flaming Inferno a body is seen coming to earth as though thrown from a catapult. With lightning speed it dashes toward the injury waves of the bay but when within 100 feet of the water, the parachutist, which has been attached to his belt opens, and although saved from a grisly fall, he is still in danger of drowning. A judge is still in danger of drowning. A judge.

DAD'S DESTINATION.

His dad—"Johnny, where will you be when you are a middle-aged man if you keep up this kind of conduct?"

Johnny—"Durno, I know where you'll be, but I ain't a-goin' to tell."—Judge.

FEEL SHAKY, BILIOUS, HEADACHY, OR CONSTIPATED? TAKE CASCARETS

Sick headaches! Always trace them to the bowels. The effect is almost in lazy liver, delayed, fermenting food substances. Ladies whose sensitive skins, constipated matter, gases and headaches, need not suffer, for they, bile generated in the bowels, instead, can be quickly cured by Cascarets. Being carried out of the system, is One taken tonight will straighten you.

Cascarets reaches the delicate brain tissue, keep your head clear, stomach sweet, it causes congestion and that dull, liver and bowels regular and make you feel bright and cheerful for months.

Cascarets remove the cause by stimulating children to eat Cascarets, too—they love it.

Cascarets remove the cause by stimulating the liver, making the bile and them because they taste good and constipation poison move on and out, never grip or sicken.
